THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A Daily Resume of Latest Happenings.

JUNE 19.

The General Association of Kentucky Baptists convened yesterday at Winchester. Dr. W. H. Felix, of Lexington, was elected Moderator. At the afternoon session the sum of $30,000 was pledged for foreign missions.

The Pope's condition is reported to have changed for the worse yesterday, and he is very weak. Audiences have been suspended and only the papal physicians were permitted to see him during the day.

District Attorney R. D. Hill will file a suit today in the United States Court praying for the confiscation by the Government of the White Mills distilling plant and other property, including nearly a million gallons of bourbon whiskey.

On account of the illness of Judge Thomas H. Paynter, of the Court of Appeals, the opinion of the court in the injunction suit of the Democratic Committee of Louisville against Allie Young will not be handed down until later in the week.

It is now believed that the recognition of the Serbian provisional Government by the Czar of Russia has put at an end to all possibility of an internal uprising. Public attention is now centered entirely upon the reception of the new King, who from Geneva has telegraphed a proclamation announcing his intention of ascending the Serbian throne under the title of Peter I.

James T. Metcalf, for many years superintendent of the money order system in the Post-office Department at Washington, was summarily dismissed by Postmaster General Payne for awarding contracts for government printing to a firm employing his son and whom he exceeded that of a responsible editor by $15,000. There were rumors that another indictment will be returned against A. W. Machen, this time for alleged forgery. The report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristol, in response to S. W. Talbot's charges, was made public.

In the Jett and White case at Jackson, French, O'Neal and Golden spoke for the defense yesterday. Capt. Hurst and Thomas Marcum spoke for the prosecution. Several clashes occurred between attorneys yesterday, and the case passed over after a few threatening demonstrations. Judge Redwine held court yesterday at Jackson for the first time in eight months. He tried and fined Gay and Johnson, the men who attacked (Troy) Haddix, one of the witnesses against Thorp and Crawford, who were accused of burning Ewen's hotel.

JUNE 20.

The Ohio Republican State Central Committee has selected Gen. Charles Dick, of Akron, to direct this year's campaign.

Reports from Washington say that the corruption which has been unearthed in the Post-office Department has spread to other bureaus and that only a small portion of the latter's work has been revealed.

The Kentucky Baptist Association, in session yesterday at Winchester, adopted resolutions urging Gov. Beckman to call an extra session of the Legislature to enact such laws as will relieve the deplorable condition of affairs in Breathitt county.

Judge J. E. Haddix, who has recently been appointed Special Judge to try child powers, today held Monday, Aug. 3, to begin the trial. He has arranged his business matters so as to give the trial his absolute attention.

Thay Haddix, one of the witnesses against Thorp and Crawford, the men accused of burning Ewen's hotel at Jackson, has written a letter to a Lexington paper saying he is afraid to stay at his home because of threats that have been made against him.

The Court of Appeals has granted a new trial to Dr. A. P. Taylor, of Lexington, who was convicted of embezzlement and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, because of his connection with an alleged investment company. The reversal is on the ground of erroneous instructions in the lower court.

Saunders, Mann and Morris, the negroes charged with assaulting John B. Farrow, were tried yesterday at Mayfield, each getting the limit of the law—five years in State prison. They will be arraigned today on the indictments charging them with burglary. An interesting legal point is involved, as their attorneys will plead the trial for assault as a bar to trial for burglary.

Five more indictments are expected from the Washington grand jury investigating postal affairs. Mrs. George E. Loring, of Toledo, O., is mentioned in connection with the Machen-Croft alleged conspiracy case, and the fact that a woman was said to have acted as go-between for the men charged with burglary adds to the interest in the expected indictments. James T. Metcalf, dismissed as superintendent of the money order division, has asked Postmaster General Payne for a hearing.

The cases of Curtis Jett and Tom White went to the jury at Jackson at noon yesterday. No verdict was reported up to the time of adjournment. Judge Redwine expressed the opinion that a verdict would be rendered this morning, and the impression that the jurors have failed to agree is by no means general. Commonwealth's Attorney A. Floyd Hyrd closed the argument for the prosecution in a four-hour speech, making an eloquent and vigorous plea for the conviction of the defendants. Mr. Hyrd was unsparing in his denunciation of the conditions prevailing at Jackson, and made frequent and scathing comments on the attitude of County Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan.

JUNE 22.

Harney Oldfield, of Dayton, O., broke the world's automobile record from one to five miles on an asphalt track at Indianapolis Saturday. A mile was covered in 39.3 seconds.

The foreign Powers are likely to become insistent in their demands upon King Peter that the assassins of Alexander and Queen be punished. The question of recognition of the Government will be settled upon the formal assumption of authority by the new King.

The Appellate Court Saturday overruled a petition for a rehearing in the case of Earl Whitney and Claude O'Brien convicted of the murder of A. B. Chinn at Lexington. Mandates will be issued in the case and Gov. Beckman will then fix the date for the execution.

The Picket, a cult that never before won a race, captured the American Derby at Chicago Saturday before a crowd of not less than 60,000 persons. The winner is from Kentucky, and was trained at Churchill Downs. Louisville racing experts won heavily on the cult, largely through the winter books.

The Court of Appeals, in reversing Judge Toney's decision in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Terry McGovern and others, holds that boxing contests, or prize fights, are a public nuisance, and that the owners of halls and premises may be enjoined from allowing the use of their property for such contests. The opinion was handed down by Judge Settle and Judge Paynter, Barker and Nunn dissent.

Gov. Beckman was in conference Saturday with Circuit Judge Redwine in regard to calling another special term of court at Jackson to investigate the charges of arson, bribery and other infractions of the law that have been brought out in the past few weeks. Inspector Hines will go to Jackson today to confer with Judge Redwine and Commonwealth's Attorney Hyrd, and it is probable that the term will be called almost immediately. A special judge may be appointed, and in case indictments are returned the cases will be transferred to some other county for trial. Gov. Beckman has assured the citizens of Jackson that he will do all in his power to protect their lives and property.

Judge James Hargis was in Lexington all day Saturday. He called twice at the jail to see Jett and White, but did not succeed in doing so. The prisoners spent a quiet day.

The Court of Appeals upholds the Democratic primary held in Jefferson county and the city of Louisville May 26, upholds the regular Democratic City and County Committee which elected and conducted the primary, and sustains the injunction granted by the Jefferson Circuit Court to restrain Allie Young from removing the committee or interfering with the primary. The decision is a clear knock out for Allie Young at every point. The opinion was handed down by Judge Paynter, a majority of the court concurring. As to the committee, it is held by the court that if the State convention gave the State Central Committee authority to remove local committees, it did not give it power to delegate that authority to Chairman Young or to any other persons. As to the primary, it is held that party authorities have no legal power to call off a primary when the rights acquired by candidates under the call would be destroyed. The injunction by the Jefferson Circuit Court to prevent interference with the committee and the primary is declared to have been the proper remedy.

JUNE 21.

Mann and Morris, the negroes convicted Thursday of assaulting John B. Farrow, were tried yesterday at Mayfield, each getting the limit of the law—five years in State prison. They will be arraigned today on the indictments charging them with burglary. An interesting legal point is involved, as their attorneys will plead the trial for assault as a bar to trial for burglary.

Judge James Hargis was in Lexington all day Saturday. He called twice at the jail to see Jett and White, but did not succeed in doing so. The prisoners spent a quiet day.

Journal have reached a total of $1,240.00. The people of Kentucky are deeply stirred by the events at Jackson, and the comments of the State press and of the letters accompanying subscriptions to the Ewen fund indicate a determination to make an end of the disgraceful situation.

The Shelbyville and Danville militia companies were withdrawn and the only soldiers left in Jackson are the members of the provost guard.

Jett and White, in charge of the militia, arrived at Lexington at 8:20 o'clock last evening. Both had been drinking and were in an ugly mood during the journey. Jett was particularly obstreperous and was only suppressed when Maj. Allen threatened to gag him. Their first caller, outside of the newspaper correspondents, was Judge James Hargis, of Jackson. Hargis asked Jett and White to treat them kindly and to spare no expense, adding that he would pay the bills. Jett and White replied that the men would receive the usual treatment accorded prisoners and that neither faction in the Breathitt county trouble need come to him with any suggestion.

Gov. Beckman held a lengthy conference with Inspector Hines and Col. Williams at Frankfort, and Col. Williams returned to Jackson. The Governor was also in telegraphic communication yesterday afternoon with Judge Redwine and Commonwealth's Attorney Hyrd.

JUNE 23.

Standard Northrup, prominent in social and financial life in St. Louis, committed suicide by shooting.

Cuban health reports show satisfactory conditions, except in the case of tuberculosis, which is on the increase on the island.

Thousands of London Jews assembled in Hyde Park to protest against the Kishinev massacre. Strong resolutions were adopted.

Senator Hanna again declares that even if nominated for the vice presidency he would not accept it. He has no White House ambitions, he says.

Several soldiers who were conspicuous in the assassination of the King and Queen of Serbia have been rewarded by King Peter with promotions in rank.

Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, in an interview at Lexington, declared himself in favor of Senator Gorman, of Maryland, as the next Democratic nominee for President.

Methodists of Louisville, Jeffersonville and New Albany will have this week no elaborate celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Wesley.

Leading candidates who opposed the Democratic primary of May 26 now declare that in view of the Court of Appeals' decision they will support the nominees of that primary.

The textile strike at the Lowell Mills has been declared at an end by the Textile Council, and the operatives, numbering about 15,000 men, will return to work as rapidly as the mills resume operations. The outcome is a defeat for the strikers.

A Russian explorer, G. Z. Zaslavov, penetrated into the heart of Tibet, a country from which Europeans have hitherto been barred, and while maintaining a residence there accumulated a fund of information relative to the country and its population which will prove of great value to geographers and scientists.

County Judge Hargis returned to Jackson from Lexington yesterday afternoon in his efforts to have the Fayette county officials take an interest in Jett and White. They will be shown no special favors and will be guarded from friends and foes alike. A "fish fry" given by Judge Hargis by a coterie of Lexington politicians has caused a storm of criticism and all concerned are now denying responsibility for Hargis' presence as a guest. The camp of the soldiers at Jackson will be moved and a force of 100 men kept on duty. A special term of court will be convened in a few weeks to take up the crimes committed since the assassination of Marcum.

Warning.

If you have kidney or bladder trouble and do not use Foley's Kidney Cure, you will have only your self to blame for results, as it positively cures all forms of kidney and bladder diseases. Sold by Louisville Drug Co.

The average man is always anxious to know the worst of his neighbor—probably because of the fact that misery loves company.

ELEVEN TO ONE.

Jury in Jett Assassination Case

Almost Unanimous For

Death Penalty.

Jackson, Ky., June 19.—One man, Jett, Fitzpatrick, saved Curt Jett's neck from a hangman's noose and nullified the long and arduous work of the past three weeks. Fitzpatrick held out for acquittal against the other eleven men, and when it was seen that the jury was hopelessly hung it was discharged. Fitzpatrick's action had been anticipated by the Commonwealth's Attorney, and by a good many other people here.

The cases were then transferred to Harrison county for trial, and the prisoners were taken to Lexington this afternoon for safe keeping. The cases cannot well be tried in Cynthiana before a month at least, as Floyd Hyrd, who has been retained by the Marcum family to assist the Prosecuting Attorney of the Harrison Circuit Court, will be engaged in Lee and Estill counties about two weeks in each county. Mr. Hyrd's friends believe he will be unsafe because of the vigorous prosecution he made in the Jett and White murder cases. He declares that he will serve out his term of office, but he has not definitely determined upon his future career.

FITZPATRICK'S "REASONS."

The attention of the whole State, of course, directed to Jett and Fitzpatrick, the man who hung the jury. Fitzpatrick was reticent when asked to state the reasons that impelled him to hold out for acquittal. He reasoned the question as through it were a reflection upon his motives, but finally said that he had a right to his own conclusions and from the time testimony was in he was convinced of the innocence of both Jett and White. He did not merely doubt that they were guilty, but he was convinced of their innocence. He declared that the arguments of the counsel on both sides failed to make any impression upon him, and that his decision was based upon the evidence and instructions given by the court. In the first place, according to his system of mathematics, the defense has more witnesses than the Commonwealth, counting them by heads. Fitzpatrick said the defense had twice as many witnesses as the Commonwealth, which, however, is not true. He would not say that he believed that Capt. Ewen and the other Commonwealth witnesses lied, but said "that is a question." He was unable to give any definite basis upon which his opinion was formed except upon "the evidence in general."

HYRD HAD HIM SPOTTED.

He is thirty-two years old, and is a farmer. No one here appears ever to have heard of him until he was summoned for jury service. He has no public record in Magoffin county and appears not to be known there.

He is a son-in-law of Wesley Harnett, the man to whom Mr. Hyrd objected before the jury was selected, and over whose removal from the jury box a bitter fight was made by opposing attorneys. Mr. Hyrd did not know when the jury was selected that Fitzpatrick was a son-in-law of Harnett. On the following day Mr. Hyrd learned these facts, and expressed himself then as doubtful of the result of the case because of Fitzpatrick, and perhaps one more man. Harnett remained in Jackson several days after he was rejected from service. He was seen to ride out of town with a rifle.

Fitzpatrick and Harnett were in the first crowd of forty men who arrived here today before the jury was selected. Harnett was removed from the jury because he was related to men in Magoffin county who had offered money to get certain men on the jury. The defense at the time made a desperate effort to have Harnett retained on the jury. Judge Redwine excused him, however, and from that time Judge Redwine appears to have favored the prosecution in every decision he made.

JUDGE REDWINE'S REELINGS.

It certainly appears to an outsider that Judge Redwine has incurred the enmity of the Hargises and Callahans by his rulings. Henry Hurst gave out a statement today publicly thanking Judge Redwine for his impartial rulings since the case was transferred back from Morgan county, declaring that Judge Redwine had noted with eminent fairness in the trial. Judge Redwine appeared to be a good deal annoyed by the failure of the jury to return a verdict. Courier-Journal.

THE FARM AND STOCK.

An exchange says: Persons bothered with fleas can get rid of them by using salt. If they are about the stables, sprinkle salt on the floor, also around the dog kennels, and lather in salt water. Where salt is used they will emigrate.

The principle we have always followed is that when hogs are ready to go, to let them go. The higher the price the more profit can be made in feeding heavy hogs, but we would not think of growing hogs over 250 lbs., unless we had no youngsters coming on. We believe that when hogs are four cents and under the proper weight at which to sell them is 175 pounds; when they are five cents, 200 pounds; when they are six cents, 225 pounds; and when they are seven cents, 250 pounds—Wallace's Farmer.

Many farmers know that cut hay, or even straw, wet and sprinkled with meal, is a better food for working horses than whole grain and hay. In this shape the nutriment in the feed is easily eaten and digested. Horses do not need water when eating, except as it is put on the chopping hay to make the meal stick to it. The meal being thin, digests perfectly, while much of the nutriment in whole grain is lost. Again, the wasted effort made in digesting the latter is so much detracted from the strength which should go to the work.

Don't run the hens up hill when you want eggs. Don't leave the hen-house unlocked when there is a colored revival nearby. Don't poke your face near a scolding hen. She might miss your nose and peck your eye out. Don't set scrub hens and expect to hatch throughhires. This is a bad year for miracles.

Don't let your hens scratch your neighbor's dovers and then wonder why she didn't invite you to her last lawn party. Don't plant grapevines in your backyard unless you do it for their special benefit. Chickens know a good thing when they see it. Don't hunt eggs while you are stargazing the hens. If you cannot break up the egg-bunting habit, feed and care for the hens. A chance is all they ask to show you what they can do—Rural World.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Cough and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bensenville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by A. M. Hughes, Druggist. Trial bottles free, regular size 50c and $1.00.

PE-RU-NA INVIGORATES.

PE-RU-NA REFRESHES.

MISS MAGGIE BECKER, 63 Lake Street, Appleton, Wis., writes: "It is with pleasure I recommend Peruna as a splendid tonic to any overtaxed person. When the mind is wearied the body will soon be worn out also, but Peruna invigorates the body and refreshes the mind. I have also found it a relief in cases of severe headache. We are never without it at home, and consider it a household blessing."—Miss Maggie Becker. Mrs. Christopher Fiechmann, Amsterdam, N. Y., writes: "I have been sick with catarrh of the stomach and pelvic organs for about five years and had many a doctor, but none could help me. Some said I would never get over it. In your Almanac I read of those who had been cured by Peruna, then I thought I would try it. I did, and found relief with the first bottle I took, and after two more bottles I was as well and strong as I ever was."

UNUSUAL CONCESSION.

World's Fair Officials Will Allow Kentucky to Display Coal and Coke in Two Different Exhibits.

Wonderful progress is being made by the Mineral Exhibit Committee of the Kentucky Exhibition Association in procuring specimens for the display in the Mines and Metallurgy Building at the World's Fair in St. Louis next year. At the meeting of this committee, held in Louisville a few days ago, reports were made by the different members representing the different classifications in this department, which showed conclusively that the mineral exhibit from Kentucky at the Exposition will equal, if indeed it does not surpass, that of any other State in the Union.

Mr. Grider had just returned from a preliminary trip through Eastern, South-eastern and Western Kentucky and made a very interesting report on the result of his tour. Mr. Grider's report was embraced in one made by Prof. Norwood and showed that, among others, the following exhibits had already been arranged for:

Coal from Carter, Hoyd, Lawrence, Bell, Laurel, Knox, Clay, Daviess, Henderson, Ohio, Union, Hopkins, Christian, Webster and Whitley counties.

Coke from all the coking establishments in the State.

Clays and their products from Carter, Breckinridge, Madison, Breckinridge, Daviess, Union, Livingston, Hardin and Rockcastle counties.

Gems from Elliott county. Iron from Lawrence, Bath, Trigg, Lyon and Livingston.

Interesting to Asthma Sufferers.

Daniel Bant of Ottumwa, Iowa, writes, "I have had Asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but get very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house. I sincerely recommend it to all. Sold by Louisville Drug Co."

Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Liquid Cream Balm is becoming quite as popular in many localities as Ely's Cream Balm solid. It is prepared for use in atomizers, and is highly praised by those who have been accustomed to call upon physicians for such a treatment. Many physicians are using and prescribing it. All the medical properties of the celebrated Cream Balm are contained in the Liquid form, which is to be used, including a spraying tube. The parade will start at 8:30 a. m. People from the country are invited to participate. All who will come mounted and take part will be furnished with false faces and tags. Grotesque costumes will be welcomed and will add to the interest. Col. Jay H. Northrup, assisted by others, will have charge of the parade.

The following important acts of the District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, recently held at Fort Gay were overlooked in our news matter until now.

The election of lay delegates to the Annual Conference resulted in the selection of M. W. Thomas, S. Caswell, W. J. Frazier, and J. H. Moore, A. J. Womack and Isaac Family, alternates.

J. H. Moore was licensed to preach, and he with W. R. Vaughn and Jno. L. Vinson were duly recommended for admission into the traveling connection. W. R. Vaughn was also recommended for local deacons' orders.

The next annual meeting of this district conference will be held at Grayson.

A fellow living across the river below Louisa is putting up cows belonging to Kentucky people and charging one dollar to liberate them. He also milks the cows and fails to account for the milk, as the law requires. The cows are put up under pretense of law, but from information obtained he is doing it illegally and is charging more than the law would allow anyway. Also, that he is not entitled to anything unless the animals damage his property. A combined effort is on foot among his victims to prosecute him.

A comparatively slight expenditure of labor would make great improvement in our streets, if used in harvesting the excellent crop of dog feces, cleaning out some of the clogged ditches intended for drainage, and trimming off the lower branches of shade trees along the sidewalks. The value of some of the new street lamps are almost entirely nullified by the low hanging branches of trees. Stagnant water is standing in a few ditches, endangering the lives of the people living near.

Mr. H. A. Scholze, who has been inspector at Lock No. 2, received an order last week to be ready for duty as an assistant U. S. Engineer on Kentucky river. He will be located at Richmond, near where there is a lock and dam in course of construction. Mrs. Scholze will go to Richmond in a short time. Mr. Scholze has proved very efficient and his promotion is well deserved.

The marshals appointed for the 4th of July parade, and as many of the commission and citizens as possible are requested to meet at the city hall Friday evening of this week to arrange the details of the parade.

It costs you nothing to look through our stock and it may save you a good deal of money to do so when you need clothing, goods, furnishings, or shoes for men, women or children.

MOORE & JORDAN.

Dr. Holand left Wednesday for Fayetteville, W. Va., where he preached the commencement sermon, June 25th, for the Fayetteville Academy. The Dr. will return in time to fill his pulpit next Sunday.

Died on the Train.

A very pathetic and unusual occurrence took place on the Big Sandy train coming up yesterday morning. It was the death of Mrs. J. F. Fry, which occurred just as the train reached Lockwood station. Not long ago the poor woman was attacked by quick consumption and her decline was rapid. Giving up all hope of recovery she expressed a desire a few days ago to be removed from her home in West Virginia to that of her father, S. W. Porter, who lives on Rockcastle. The trip was accordingly undertaken, but the desire of the unfortunate woman to die at her old home was not realized. Her death was painless and peaceful. She was on a cot in the baggage car. With her were the husband, a sister and brother-in-law. The woman's age was about 40.

Mr. F. T. H. Wallace telegraphed to Louisa for a casket and it was delivered at the train, causing a delay of only a few minutes. The body was taken by way of Ponch Deland to Rockcastle.

It is said that rebating by them is being conducted in such a high-handed manner that severe measures will have to be taken to stop the practice. The Kentucky insurance law prescribes a heavy fine for any insurance company, officer or agent thereof, found guilty of rebating in this state.

New Gas Line Accepted.

The new pipe line built by the N. & W. railroad on the Kentucky side of the Big Sandy from Blaine to Burgess has been formally accepted by the Trip's State Gas Company. ROAD ORDERS

Of Considerable Importance Made by the Fiscal Court.

Fiscal Court was in session here as we went to press last week. Mention was made of the order to redistrict the county for road-working purposes, reducing the large number of overseers to a maximum of twenty for the entire county, and paying each as salary a sum not exceeding $50 per year. The order becomes effective July 1st.

The plan is new. Naturally it is the subject of much discussion, with a difference of opinion manifested as to the wisdom of it. Like most all laws, its success is more dependent upon a strict and intelligent execution than anything else. The overseers should be conscientious, practical and active men, who will see that every road worker puts in the required amount of labor on the roads, where most needed and to the best advantage. Whether we like the plan or not, it is our duty as citizens to comply with its requirements to the end that our roads be improved.

The court ordered that the road machine be brought at once to Louisa and used on the road leading by way of Blaine to the Morgan county line. Next it is to be used from Louisa up Lick creek and the river to the Johnson county line. This is the proper course to pursue—the busiest part of the road should have attention first.

John Cummings was awarded the contract at $122 for putting a coat of cement around the sandstone foundation of the court house, with a view to stopping the decay which has begun. The work was done this week under the supervision of D. C. O'Neal, special commissioner.

Alexander Lackey and A. J. Gurren, committee to refund the bonded indebtedness of the county, reported that they had sold the new bonds to G. W. Gunnell at par. The amount of the bonds is $100,000, drawing four per cent. interest. All old bonds were retired and cancelled.

CHAMBERS & CO.

A great effort is being made to complete the railroad between West Liberty and Morehead this summer. Mr. E. A. Carr, manager of the construction of this road, who was here Saturday, says they will have great difficulty in getting work hands and they had been compelled to bring several hundred negroes from Georgia.—Owingsville Messenger.

Children's Day was observed last Sunday by the Baptist Sunday School. The program was rendered at the regular hour for church services in the evening. A large congregation was present and evidently enjoyed the exercises very much.

Mrs. Cal. Heare, of Fort Gay, invited 21 young people in last evening to meet her guests, three charming young ladies from Trenton—Misses Belle Nixon, Emma Gray and Sarah Harrison. A number from Louisa were among those who enjoyed the pleasant occasion.

Dr. M. G. Watson and wife went to French Lick Springs, Ind., Monday. The Dr. has not fully recovered from his recent illness, but is much improved. It is hoped a short stay at the Springs will restore his health.

G. V. MERR.

Rev. J. T. French, pastor of the M. E. church South, at Ashland, has resigned his charge there, and leaves next week, with his family, for San Francisco, where he will take charge of Centenary church, the finest Methodist church in the city. The change is made in hopes of benefiting the health of Mr. and Mrs. French, they both being sufferers from lung trouble. Mr. French is a very earnest and successful minister and his departure from the West Virginia Conference will cause general regret.

Illustrated Biblical Lecture.

Rev. D. H. Reid, of Point Pleasant, W. Va., will give a lecture on "St. Paul, His Life and Times," at the Masonic Hall, Friday night, July 31st. The city and county officials disagree as to whose duty it is to keep up the public roads on the outskirts of Louisa, but within the corporate limits. Can the matter not be gotten into the courts some way so that it should be settled? It is important to have these roads kept in good repair.

Since the above was put in type we have seen the order made by Fiscal Court, providing that the City have the roads put into condition, and if it be decided that the county must pay for it, then this will be done.

A paint that stands the sun: "BLACK MAMMY."

Mrs. N. D. Waldeck entertained the members of the W. C. T. U. last Wednesday evening. Cream and cake were served and each member was presented with a small bouquet, tied with a white ribbon, the emblem of the society. The evening was highly enjoyed by all present.

FALLSBURG.

J. B. Sloan has the contract for building the Odd Fellows Hall at this place and has already begun the work. When the building is completed, situated as it is on the rising ground back of the storehouses and dwellings, it will be quite an ornament to the town of Fallsburg. Several travelling preachers, I think they call themselves "missionaries," began a protracted meeting here. They have put up a canvass to accommodate a large audience of people. An Italian stone mason by the name of James Francis was drowned near the mouth of Tabers creek last Sunday. He went in the river to bathe and got out in deep water and couldn't swim. They had to drag the river bank while to get the body. James Barrett's daughter, Pansy Dinges, both from Hamilton, W. Va., are here visiting relatives.
